

The UK Global University after Brexit

09:15-15:30, Monday 24 June 2019

Venue: Conference Room, Interdisciplinary Centre of the Social Sciences (ICOSS),
University of Sheffield

PROGRAMME:

09:15 – 09:45	Registration and coffee (ICOSS foyer)
09:45 – 10:00	Welcome and opening remarks on behalf of HERC and CGHE  Dr Vassiliki Papatsiba , Senior Lecturer of Higher Education, University of Sheffield
10:00 – 11:30	(I) Plenary panel: How are UK universities navigating Brexit?  Chair: James Wilsdon , Professor of Research Policy, University of Sheffield  Speakers ( 10-12 mins each, followed by 45 min panel ):  Dr Tony Strike , University Secretary, University of Sheffield – Sheffield’s approach to the Brexit era  Natalie Day , Head of Strategy and Policy Insight, Sheffield Hallam University – How Sheffield Hallam is preparing for Brexit  Jon Deer , Deputy Director, Research Division, LSE – How the LSE is navigating Brexit  Q&A and plenary discussion
11.30 – 11.45	Coffee break (ICOSS first floor landing)
11.45 – 12.45	(II) Keynote speaker (30 mins talk, followed by Q&A):  Dr Gabi Lombardo , Director, European Alliance for Social Sciences and Humanities (EASSH http://www.eassh.eu ) Horizon Europe and the prospects and uncertainties for EU-UK collaboration in the social sciences and humanities  Chair: Dr Heather Ellis , Vice-Chancellor’s Fellow, University of Sheffield

12.45 – 13:30	Lunch and networking (ICOSS foyer)
13:30 – 15:15	(III) Research perspectives on UK universities after Brexit Chair: Dr Jenn Chubb, Fellow in Research on Research, University of Sheffield Speakers (20 mins each; followed by 45 min panel): Dr Heather Ellis, Vice-Chancellor’s Fellow, University of Sheffield – Historical perspectives on British students’ study abroad James Wilsdon, Professor of Research Policy, University of Sheffield – Dominic Cummings’ Dream Machine: imaginaries of post-Brexit universities, research &amp; science diplomacy Dr Vassiliki Papatsiba, Senior Lecturer of HE, University of Sheffield – People, collaboration &amp; openness: UK universities’ responses to Brexit
15:15 – 15:30	Conclusions and next steps Dr Tony Strike, University Secretary, University of Sheffield Dr Vassiliki Papatsiba, Senior Lecturer of Higher Education, University of Sheffield