The Bloomsbury Handbook of Diversity, Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education* explores the intersections of contemporary understandings and practices of leadership within higher education around diversity, inclusion and indigeneity. With contributions from four continents, the handbook brings together diverse perspectives to explore a range of topics including access, equity, cultural competence, decolonisation, student activism and indigenous insights. Countries covered include Australia, Canada, Czech Republic, India, New Zealand, Pakistan, South Africa, and the USA.

The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection, brought together by Mary Drinkwater.

Yusef Waghid is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy of Education at Stellenbosch University in South Africa. He is editor of Citizenship Teaching and Learning and editor-in-chief of South African Journal of Higher Education.

Mary Drinkwater is Lecturer in Leadership, Higher and Adult Education, and Comparative International and Development Education, at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, Canada. She is also an Adjunct Faculty at Yorkville University, Canada.
