The Bloomsbury Handbook of Values and Ethical Change in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education

Edited by Mary Drinkwater & Yusef Waghid

"Ethical, transformative leadership is often the missing link in many failing organisations across the world. The dearth of such leadership signals the death of opportunities for countries to achieve the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals. This Handbook is a handy platform for robust discussions on the dynamics of achieving value-laden, ethical and transformative change in society." Vitalis Chikoko, Professor in Educational Leadership, Management and Policy, University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Values and Ethical Change in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education* explores the theoretical and conceptual frameworks which can broaden and deepen an educational leader's knowledge and skill set related to values and ethical change in times of crises and change. With contributions from five continents, the handbook brings together multi-contextual perspectives to the understanding and application of the theoretical and conceptual models in the field. A broad range of leadership skills and approaches are explored, including collaborative, democratic, learning-centered, transactional, charismatic, transformative, transformational, Stieglerian nootechnologies, agency theory, and network leadership. Countries covered include Australia, Brazil, Canada, Cyprus, India, Italy, Portugal, South Africa, and the UK.

The book forms part of the The Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection, brought together by Mary Drinkwater.

Mary Drinkwater is a Lecturer in Leadership, Higher and Adult Education, and Comparative International and Development Education, at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, Canada. She is also an Adjunct Faculty at Yorkville University, Canada.

Yusef Waghid is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy of Education at Stellenbosch University in South Africa. He is editor of Citizenship Teaching and Learning and editor-in-chief of South African Journal of Higher Education.
