

What have happened at UK universities during the Pandemic

Kyungmee Lee

March 2020

The UK was unprepared... could have been better prepared

Spring 2020

We expected the worst

We were worried about academics being

Incompetent

We were worried about academics being

Incompetent

Unsupported

We were also worried about students being

Fragile

We were also worried about students being

Fragile

Irresponsible

However, most academics were...

Hard working and Caring

However, most academics were...

Hard working and
Caring

Supported

At the same time, most students were

Resilient and Proactive

At the same time, most students were

Resilient and Proactive

Connected and Creative

A lack of skills

A lack of skills

Skills to learn

A lack of skills

Skills to learn

Inaccessible

A lack of skills

Skills to learn

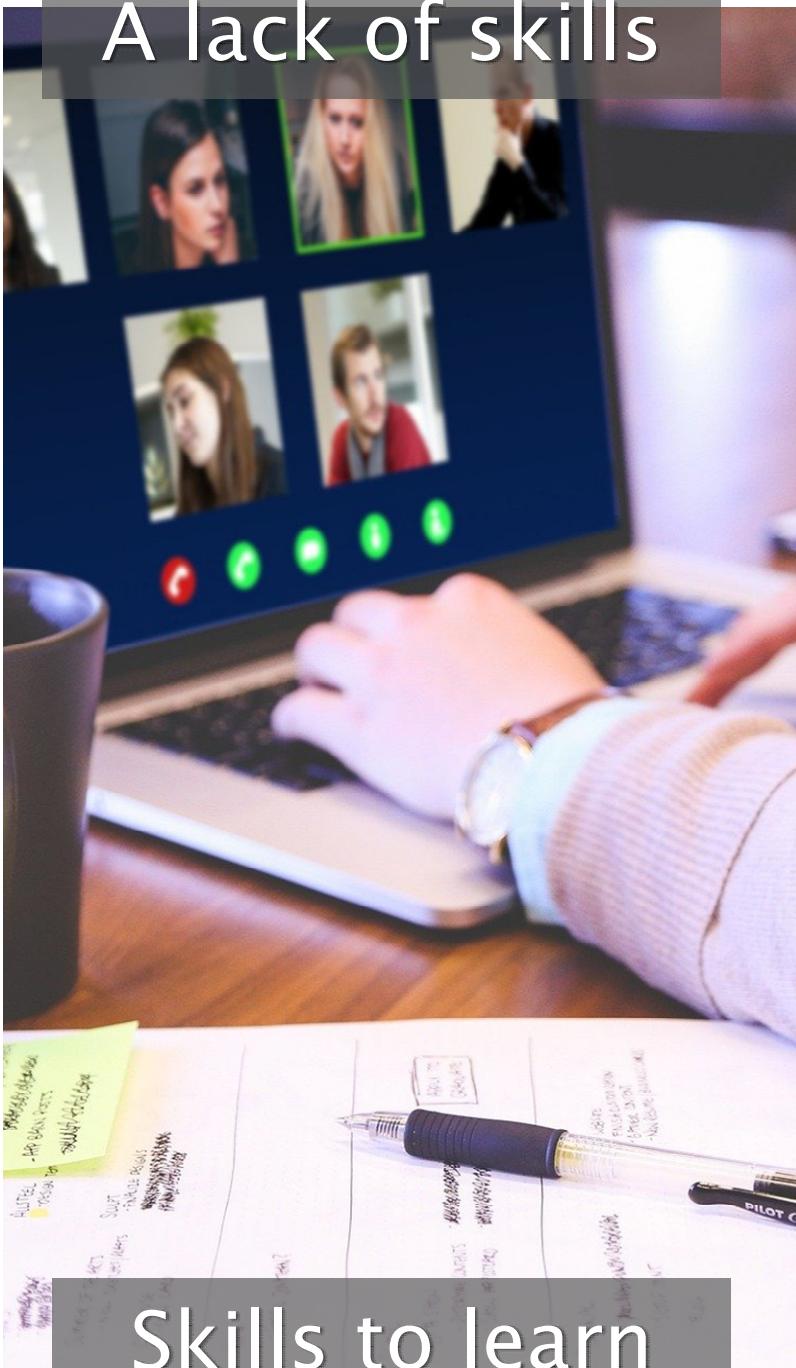

Inaccessible

Rapid changes

A lack of skills

Skills to learn

Inaccessible

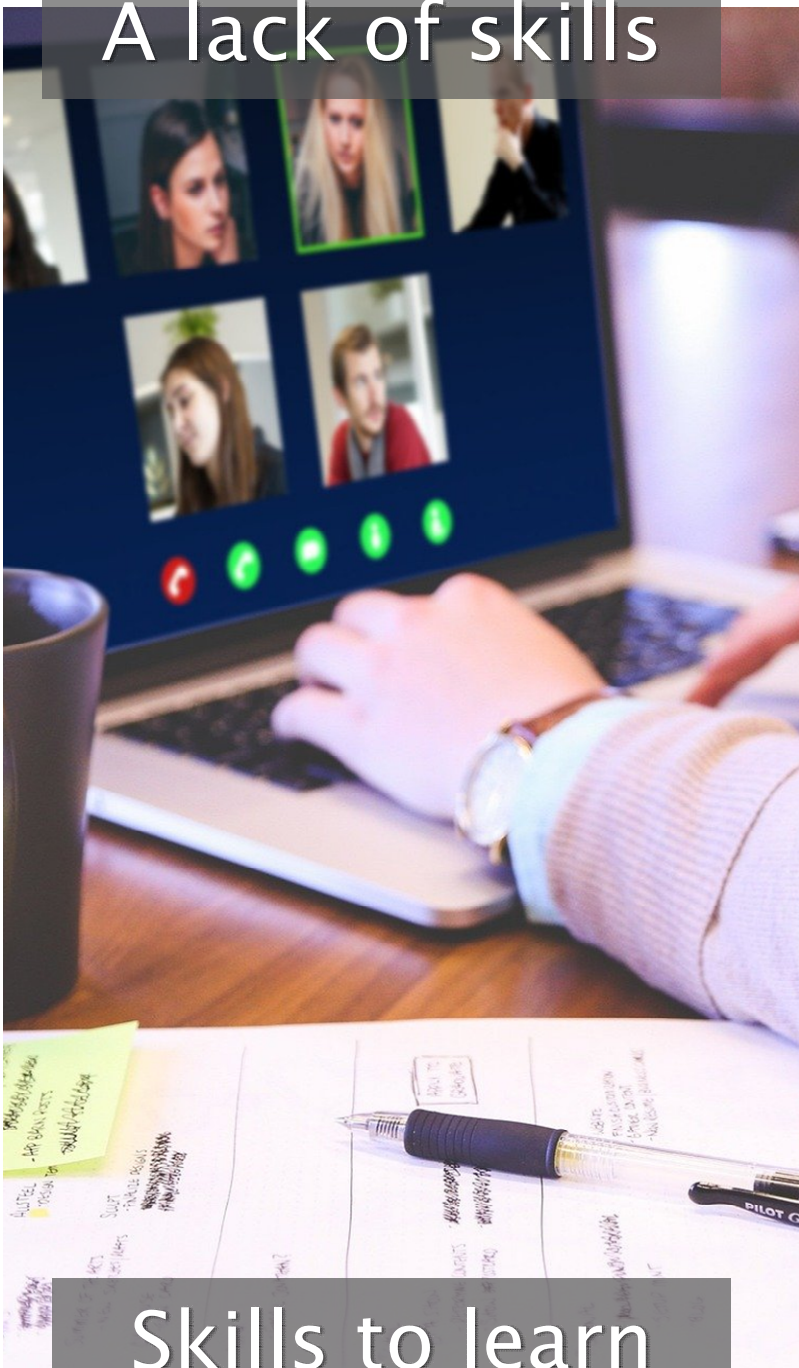

Rapid changes

Workload

A lack of skills

Skills to learn

Inaccessible

Rapid changes

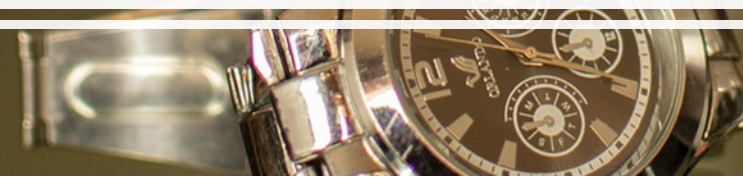

Workload

Management skills

September 2020

UK universities were better prepared

Student Petition: “The quality of online lectures is not equal to face-to-face lectures. Students should not have to pay full tuition fees for online lectures, without experiencing university life.”

Student Petition: “The quality of online lectures is not equal to face-to-face lectures. Students should not have to pay full tuition fees for online lectures, without experiencing university life.”

UK Government: “Higher education providers must deliver high-quality courses. If students are unhappy, they should first complain to their provider, or the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education.”

Thank You

Kyungmee Lee

k.lee23@Lancaster.ac.uk