

Inward student mobility and the transformations of higher education systems in France and the UK since the 1920s, 26 April 2022

00:51:06 Simon Marginson: It's time now to bring forward into the Chat your questions and statements - to contribute to the discussion and if you wish, to be included in the Q&A

01:00:14 Zachery Spire: Thank You so much for this Dr Carpentier! Do you have any thoughts on recent sharp changes in domestic and international student mobility for student housing, residential and non residential models of university? Especially as it relates to public and private funding/student debt.

01:01:13 Saumen Chattopadhyay: To what extent did the reputation of the Universities in the two countries, France and UK determine the choices exercised by the international students? Did the tuition fees levied on the international students matter comparatively speaking, influenced the choice of the students?
