

Liberal Arts and Humanities in East Asia and the US

26 January 2023

00:45:39 Ka Ho Mok: Please send your questions and share your comments with the speakers, thanks.

00:50:56 Simon Gray: To both speakers. What impact are accrediting bodies having on the direction colleges and universities are taking?

00:56:56 Ka Ho Mok: please send in questions now

00:59:14 Ruth Hayhoe: Could you say something about the role of language and language learning in mutual understanding and enrichment across cultures.

01:02:41 Kara Godwin: In the dynamic and challenging context for liberal arts/interdisciplinary/human-centered education globally — especially while higher education's value is being challenged generally — can you speak to the benefits of coalitions and associations that bring organizations like Lingnan and GLCA/GLAA together with other institutions?

01:04:40 Kara Godwin: What research questions would you like education (or other) scholars to pursue - especially in concert with leaders and practitioners - to help understand and advance the work of liberal education in a global context?

01:11:05 CGHE Webinars: Thank you for joining us today. A recording of this session will be posted on the CGHE site: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/liberal-arts-and-humanities-in-east-asia-and-the-us/>

01:11:17 CGHE Webinars: Our next webinar, 'Higher education in Ukraine: past overview, present state and future perspectives', will take place on Tuesday from 2pm (UK). You can register here: https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0pf-mtpj0qEtVyGPMcujr5NU6e0b5s8up_

01:12:21 Mickey McDonald: In Europe: ECOLAS: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/ECOLAS>

01:13:17 Victorița Trif: Thank you!

01:13:20 Simon Gray: Thank you!

01:13:32 Jan McArthur: Thank you for an excellent seminar. So interesting.