

'Higher education and knowledge in Latin America past, present and future' series – webinar 2: The World Class University, regional responses and academic careers in Latin America, 5 July 2022

00:22:28 Simon Marginson: A warm thank you to Imanol Ordorika for his very kind remarks. It is an honour and a happiness to know him.

00:24:07 carmela chavez: Good morning from Peru

00:26:41 Annette Insanally: Good morning from Jamaica. Appreciate the opportunity.

00:33:03 Carolina Guzman Valenzuela: Good morning from México

01:04:45 Simon Marginson: my question is about the nature of the leading private universities in Latin America. Are they like Harvard, which is ultimately responsible only to itself. to their communities and nations? Is the 'global' orientation used to cast off local commitment when they want? How is their mission embedded in their nations and communities?

01:09:26 CGHE Webinars: Thank you for joining us today. A recording of this session will be on the CGHE site tomorrow: <https://www.researchcghe.org/events/cghe-seminar/higher-education-and-knowledge-in-latin-america-past-present-and-future-series-webinar-2-the-world-class-university-regional-responses-and-academic-careers-in-latin-america/>
